

MARGY BURNS KNIGHT

WORK EXPERIENCE

Literacy Consultant Bates College, Lewiston, Maine

January — June 2010

Winthrop, Maine Schools Service Learning Coordinator

October 2008 — present

ESL Consultant/Teacher/Tutor, Winthrop, Maine

October, 2005 — June, 2009

Author -in -Residence, USA and Europe

September 1994 — present.

Author

1990 — Present

- Africa Is Not A Country
- Talking Walls, The Stories Continue
- Welcoming Babies
- Who Belongs Here?, An American Story
- Talking Walls

Teacher of English as a Second Language, Augusta, Maine Public Schools

1983 — 1990

Social Studies Teacher, Maranacook Community School, Readfield, Maine

1982 — 1983

Teacher of History and English as a Second Language, TASIS ,Lugano Switzerland

1978 — 1980

Peace Corps, Benin, West Africa

1976 — 1977

EDUCATION

Bowdoin College

B.A. History [1976]

1973-74 Exchange Student at University of Lancaster, England

LEADERSHIP & VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Coordinator Winthrop Mural Project

Fund-raising, budget and management for nine community-based murals in Winthrop, Maine.

Coordinator of Winthrop Writes and It's All about Writing @ Maranacook

Instructed and organized collaborative cross-disciplinary community writing projects.